CFR/Law Review Article Database

The Lane County Law Library is currently reviewing HeinOnline, a database that provides access to historical legal documents, such as current and past issues of the Federal Register and of the CFRs. Hein's database also provides full-text access for most of the major law reviews in the U.S., including all of those from Oregon-based law schools. A demo is scheduled for Friday, October 13 at 10:00 a.m. in the Law Library. Please call 682-4113 if you would like to be included on the schedule of hands-on searching demos for that day. The Librarian can also arrange an appointment on another day or time. The library hopes to add this service to its available on-line databases.

Electronic Survey

As part of the Law Library's Strategic Planning process, we are expanding our outreach efforts to members of the public and the local bar. We need input and feedback about your needs and which programs/resources best address those needs. Included on the Law Library's main web page is a link to a five-question on-line survey asking bar members about their use (or non-use?) of the library. This is your opportunity to speak up and ask for more services, resources or whatever else you feel the Law Library should be providing to you. Go to the main page of the Law Library's web site at: http://www.co.lane.or.us/CC\_LawLib/ and click on "Bar Survey." Please take a few minutes to help us better design our programs, as well as provide us with comments or suggestions for items you would like to see added or maintained. This survey will be open for comments through the end of November so LCBA members will have sufficient time to contribute.
