BIRTH THROUGH THREE TOOLKIT TRAINING: A GUIDE FOR PARENTS CREATING PARENTING PLANS FOR YOUNG CHILDREN

The Parental Involvement and Outreach Subcommittee of the State Family Law Advisory Committee (SFLAC) is offering a regional training on the Birth Through Three Toolkit. The program is intended for family court judges, attorneys, mediators, and facilitators. Training will be held Friday, September 22, 2017, from 1:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. at the John Serbu Juvenile Justice Center, 2727 Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd, Eugene, OR 97401. We are applying for CLE credits.

The SFLAC's Parental Involvement and Outreach Subcommittee (PIOS) conducts an interactive training for family law judges, attorneys, mediators, and court staff on the Birth Through Three Toolkit to assist parents in developing parenting plans for children under the age of four. The interactive training includes an examination of the most recent research in this area, allows an opportunity for the participants to role play, and presents methods for the practical application of the tool.

For additional information, the Birth Through Three Toolkit is located on the OJD Website:

LANE COUNTY LAW LIBRARY UPDATE

I have been honored to serve as the Lane County Law Librarian for the past four years. Many of you have given me the opportunity to help you answer challenging questions, teach you something new about legal research, or we have been the only place you could find a resource or technology. Thank you for providing me the opportunity to work with you.

If you have not been in for some time, or you never make it past the desk where we check out CLE materials. I'd invite you to give the library another look. Westlaw bolsters our print content, which has come to focus on Oregon materials and a few in depth treatises and some practical handbooks.

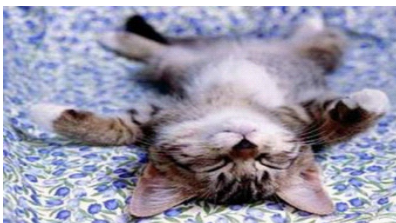

And with the ability to email content from Westlaw, integrating your research here with your office is very easy. We have tried to mark volumes on the shelves which can be updated through Westlaw.

We have a recent law school graduate who will be stewarding the law library through its transition to the next law librarian. I have no doubt that whoever takes over as the head of this program in the future will continue to serve you and other Lane County residents as best we can.

If you have questions, you can always reach us by email at lclawlib@co.lane.or.us or by phone at 541-682-4337. Our staffed hours through the transition will remain Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. and 1:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m. We are open but unstaffed over the lunch hours.

Thank you,
Neil Miller
