Announcements

HELLO LANE COUNTY BAR MEMBERS

The new 1L class just arrived at the University of Oregon, and many of them would like to meet local mentors. If you are interested in mentoring this year, please complete this very brief (less than 5 minute) survey:

https://survey.az1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_8680DtkuetyEq5T

Please complete this survey even if you have mentored in the past and respond by Friday, October 13, 2017. If you have any questions, please contact Beatrice Grace at bgrace@justicelawyers.com.

As part of the mentoring program, the Lane County Bar and the University of Oregon will be holding a social event in early November at Oakshire Brewing, date and place TBA. If you have a scheduling conflict with that event, we would still love to have you as a mentor, and there are many other ways you can participate. This is a great opportunity for students to start learning from local attorneys, networking, and becoming part of our great legal community!

FEDERAL CONFLICTS WITH OREGON LEGAL MARIJUANA PROGRAM

Where: Vet’s Club

Many LCBA members already know that Lane County Legal Aid & Advocacy Center merged with the Oregon Law Center on January 1, 2017, so it is now part of the statewide network of offices that provide civil legal service to low income people.

This is a good time to introduce our new Managing Attorney, Erika Hente, who is a very welcome addition to our office at 11th and Mill in Eugene. Erika is looking forward to meeting local attorneys.

Private attorney involvement enables legal aid to help more people, and attorneys can now get one CLE credit for every 2 hours of pro bono service, up to 6 credits per reporting period. There are many ways for an individual or a firm to fulfill the pro bono aspirational standard and Christine Zeller-Powell, christine.zeller.powell@gmail.com, a member of the OSB Pro Bono Committee would be happy to provide additional information. But in addition to that, attorneys can sign up directly with Lane County Legal Aid/Oregon Law Center. This month’s LCBA Bar News contains a form to fill out and return, and we hope each attorney who reads this will take a look at it and consider participating.

Please help us get the Bar News to you in a timely manner. While all submissions are welcomed, remember, the deadline is the 20th of each month. We try to accommodate the inclusion of all submissions, but cannot guarantee that any submissions received after this deadline will be included in the next issue. Submissions that do not make one issue of the newsletter will, of course, be included in the subsequent issue. The preparation of this newsletter is a labor of love, but it does take some time and effort. Your support of this process is greatly appreciated. Thank you.

September 21, 2017 was the United Way’s Day of Caring and Hershner Hunter volunteered to participate by helping out with some projects at the Lane County Legal Aid & Advocacy Center. The workers who were good enough to give 4 hours of their time working on the exterior and interior of the building are (from left to right) Sara Bereiter, Pablo Valentine, Dana Nobles, Sally Claycomb, Pat Neill, Nick Frost. Lane County Legal Aid & Advocacy Center extends its sincere appreciation to the volunteers.
